

U Thant Election Strengthens Him As U.N. Executive

Secretary-General Warns He Will Not be Coerced

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U Thant embarked today on a four year term as secretary-general of the United Nations in a considerably stronger position than he had as the stop-gap replacement for the late Dag Hammarskjöld.

The Burmese diplomat was elected unanimously Friday to the post by the General Assembly after the Budgetary Committee had recommended an increase in his pay and allowances to $70,000 a year.

His election was one positive result of the Cuban crisis from which he emerged with the plaudits of both the United States and the Soviet bloc.

Delegates noted with satisfaction that he was elected unhampered by any Soviet attempt to tie his hands as they did when he was named the acting U.N. chief a year ago.

Won't Be Coerced

Thant, a slender, dark 55-year-old former schoolteacher and journalist, in his acceptance speech made clear he does not intend to be coerced from any source.

He said he hoped he could play a role "however humble" in bridging the gap between the big powers and warned that "we live in an imperfect world, and have to accept imperfect solutions."

He stressed that "when the future of mankind itself is at stake, no country or interest group can afford to take a rigid stand, or claim that its position is the only right one, and that others must take or leave it."

While acknowledging that a secretary-general should seek counsel from his Secretariat staff at all levels, Thant avoided mention of the eight principal advisers from East, West and neutral countries named last year at Soviet insistence.

In his speech to the Assembly, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin gave token support to the Kremlin scheme for a three-man top U.N. executive. But he stressed that the Soviet Union recognized the need for resolving the leadership issue by taking into account Thant's qualities, especially his role in the Cuban crisis.

Zorin he'd to the hope that Thant would consult actively with the eight-man advisory board, but there was no indication that the Soviet Union intends to press this point.

India Agrees to Buy Surplus Products

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department announced Friday an agreement to sell $5,103,000 worth of surplus dairy products and canned fruit to India for the use of its armed forces. More than $4 million of the total will be for evaporated milk.

New London Youth Dies In Car Crash

James Dahms, 15 Tossed From Auto Near Sugar Bush

NEW LONDON — James Dahms, 15, of New London, was killed and his companion remains unconscious at New London Community Hospital where he was taken early this morning after a one-car accident at Waupaca County Trunk N and Stat 45 near Sugar Bush Corners. The accident occurred shortly after 2 a. m.

According to Waupaca County police, the injured man is Alvin Jones, 19, also of New London. New London Community Hospital authorities listed his condition as serious.

Dahms received fatal injuries when he was tossed from the car as it rounded the curve and began rolling over. It was not determined who the driver of the car was, police said.

Sgt. Lyle McCully of the Waupaca County Traffic Police said the car caught fire and the blaze was extinguished with a hand extinguisher.

The dead youth's mother is Mrs. Fred Dahms, 902 Waupaca St., New London. The youth's father is dead, police said.

Reds Assert They Withdraw Troops

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Chinese Communists said today they were beginning their promised troop withdrawals from the Himalayan battlefield.

Indian troops peered through the mountain mists for confirmation of the Peking announcement, but it may be days before they can determine whether the Chinese are in fact pulling back to their self-set line.

A Peking Defense Ministry statement said the Chinese were moving back 12½ miles behind what Peking calls the line of control of Nov. 7, 1959. The broadcast statement called on India to "promptly take corresponding measures." India has been insisting on a Chinese pullback to their Sept. 8, 1962 positions as a basis for negotiations.

The soldiers of the two countries have been in visible contact at only a few places on the northeastern front since the Chinese proclaimed a cease-fire Nov. 22 and promised a troop withdrawal Dec. 1.

4-Engine Craft Tried to Land Through Hole in Fog Covering Idlewild Airport

NEW YORK (AP)—A four-engine airliner, feeling its way toward a landing through a hole in the fog smothering Idlewild Airport Friday night, crashed and burned, killing 25 of 51 persons aboard.

Survivors scrambled through emergency exits, crawling and running from the flames that engulfed the forward portion of the propeller-driven Eastern Air Lines DC7B, arriving from Charlotte, N.C.

Idlewild had been completely covered by fog earlier in the evening and Capt. Edward J. Bechtold, a veteran frequently used as an expert cross-examiner in government inquiries into crashes, told the passengers he might try to land at Philadelphia.

"We don't know what made him change his mind," said Leonard Clementi of Huntington, Long Island, one of the injured survivors.

Instruments Used

Another passenger, Lou Louf, a movie producer from Dover, N.J., recalled the pilot announcing: "We can make it. There is a little hole. We should be down in about six minutes."

One survivor, M. V. Little of Garden City, N.Y., said he heard a voice from the cockpit say over the loudspeaker: "In five minutes we'll either be on the ground or in it."

On instrument control, the big airliner started descending from the eastern side of the busy airport on Long Island, the side toward Queens, Brooklyn and Manhattan.

"We could see the lights as we came down," said Helen Fournier, 21, of Forest Hills, Queens, one of the two stewardesses on Eastern's Flight 512. Both survived.

"Then we came down with a bang," she continued. "It was kind of quick. It seemed that the pilot was increasing the power."

Ex-Sen. O'Mahoney Of Wyoming Dies At Naval Hospital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming, a strong foe of monopoly in business, died today at the age of 78.

Officials at the U.S. Naval Hospital in Bethesda, Md., declined to give the cause of death. A heart attack in 1959 left him partially paralyzed and a secretary said he entered the hospital 19 days ago for treatment of a heart ailment.

A staunch New Deal and Fair Deal Democrat for the most part, O'Mahoney served in the Senate from his appointment late in 1933 until his retirement in 1960. He was in the Senate for 27 years.

He was the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Far West campaign manager in the 1932 presidential election and served most of 1933 as first assistant secretary general.

The 11th child of immigrant parents, he was born in Chelsea, Mass. He attended Columbia College in New York before heading west.

'61 Legislature May Reconvene

GOP Tentatively Okays Session On December 27

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau MADISON — The durable 1961 legislature, which has already spent more session days than any other in the history of the state, may hold yet another session before it expires legally at the turn of the year.

Republican assemblymen tentatively approved a reconvening of both houses on Dec. 27, when they met here Friday to discuss organization of the successor 1963 legislature which will take up its duties on Jan. 9.

Their decision was subject to the concurrence of the senate Republican majority, which is holding a caucus today in Wisconsin Rapids.

Terms of Adjournment

Paul Alfonsi, Republican floor leader-designate in the assembly, explained that under the terms of its adjournment last summer, the 1961 legislature will reconvene one hour before the convening of the 1963 legislature on Jan. 9.

But he said an hour probably won't be sufficient to dispose of the substantial number of bills and gubernatorial vetoes of Governor Nelson that will remain on the calendar and that his colleagues favored a special meeting of possibly two days for the clean-up job.

The 1961 legislature has already established records for length of deliberations that will stand a long time, as a result of the protracted political differences with Democratic Gov. Nelson that now seem likely to be continued next year with Democratic Gov. Reynolds.

The houses thus far have recorded 182 days of session time, in an unprecedented series of four separate sittings, from Jan. 11 to Aug. 12, 1961; Oct. 30 to Dec. 22, 1961; Jan. 8 to Jan. 12, 1962, and June 10 to July 31, 1962.

Mechem Named U.S. Senator

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—Edwin L. Mechem is New Mexico's first Republican senator in 27 years. Mechem resigned as governor Friday and was appointed to the Senate by Lt. Gov. Tom Bolack who, in turn, became governor. Both will serve interim terms. Mechem, 50, succeeds Sen. Dennis Chavez, a Democrat, who died Nov. 18. Bolack will be governor only a month. Democrat Jack Campbell, who defeated Mechem in the Nov. 6 general election, will take office as governor Jan. 1. Chavez' term in the Senate is up Jan. 1, 1965. A senator will be elected in November 1964.

Mikoyan in Visit to New Supermarket

ROCKVILLE, Md. (AP)—The Soviet Union's super traveling salesman, Anastas I. Mikoyan, went shopping Friday to check on his competition's latest tricks.

For an hour he prowled a huge, glittering new supermarket in this Washington suburb. He pinched packages, eyed slabs of meat, shook hands with clerks and shoppers and patted children's heads.

But he bought nothing. The Russian expert on international trade bustled about his mission—to look over the latest capitalist techniques in preparing and dispensing food and the hundreds of other items in the American housewives' marketplace.

Little escaped Mikoyan's attention. He moved from an automatic car wash outside to the vast meat counter, looking, questioning and getting his answers through his interpreter and guide — Madame Anatoly Dobrynin, wife of the Soviet ambassador.

Russians Moving Jets Out of Cuba

Bombers Being Packed for Early Homeward Shipment

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union has started packing up its nuclear-capable jet bombers in Cuba and moving them to ports for shipment back to Russia, U.S. officials said today.

The first shipload is expected to move out soon. By agreement between Premier Khrushchev and President Kennedy this and subsequent ships will be subject to U.S. naval observation as were the 42 nuclear missiles removed earlier this month.

End of Second Phase

Withdrawal of the bombers will complete the second phase of Khrushchev's nuclear weapons retreat from the Caribbean, the removal of the big missiles having constituted the end of the first and most dangerous phase.

But top American officials foresee that remaining issues in the crisis may drag on unsettled for weeks or months. A round of high-level talks here during the past two days appears to have served to sharpen rather than to soften the U.S.-Soviet disagreements over these remaining issues.

Mikoyan Flying Home

Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan is flying home this weekend to report to Khrushchev on his conferences with Kennedy and with Secretary of State Dean Rusk—as well as his earlier sessions at Havana with Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Information from American sources indicates that Mikoyan will have to tell Khrushchev that Kennedy is unshakably determined to maintain an aerial watch over Cuba indefinitely unless reliable ground inspection is provided. Castro, in his meetings with Mikoyan, flatly refused to permit such inspection.

From Kennedy's viewpoint the issue of verification, which was originally promised by Khrushchev at the height of the Cuban crisis, is the most critical of the remaining Cuban issues, particularly in view of persistent claims of anti-Castro refugees that Soviet nuclear weapons have been hidden among Cuba's many caves.

Man Accused of Murder In 2 Deaths Held Sane And Will Stand Trial

MARINETTE (AP)—Claude Miller, 39, of Marinette, charged with murder in the deaths of his wife and another man last month, was declared Friday to be sane and able to stand trial.

Counsel for Miller, however, managed to delay proceedings in a writ of habeas corpus against the judge. By statute, proceedings will be halted until the State Court Administrator assigns a new judge to the case.

Miller is accused of shooting his wife, Frances, 32, and 19-year-old Elmer Kohler in the Miller home Oct. 6 while several children looked on.

He underwent a mental examination and was then brought back to court.

32 Scientists Honor Birth of Atomic Age

CHICAGO (AP)—Thirty-two scientists who witnessed the birth of the atomic age gathered in Chicago today to commemorate the 20th anniversary of one of the events.

The scientists were members of the research team that under the leadership of the late Enrico Fermi designed and built the atomic pile where the first self-sustaining controlled nuclear chain reaction occurred.

The historic moment occurred at 3:25 p.m. Dec. 2, 1942.

The gathering today began a weekend of various commemorative events in Chicago, Washington, New York and elsewhere. Among those attending the meeting in Chicago today was Enrico Fermi's widow, Fermi was an Italian immigrant who after World War II joined the staff of the University of Chicago's Institute of Nuclear Studies. He died in Chicago in 1954.

The atomic pile built by Fermi and his fellow scientists measured 30 by 32 feet and was 21 feet high. It was located under the west stands of Stagg Field, the long unused University of Chicago football stadium. It was composed of 52 tons of uranium and 472 tons of graphite.

In February 1943, the pile was postmaster general. The 11th child of immigrant parents, he was born in Chelsea, Mass. He attended Columbia College in New York before heading west.

Danger Subsides

Fog of Chlorine Gas Disables 100 Persons

CORNWALL, Ont. (AP)—A Canadian Industrial Ltd. factory for shipment to Hull, Que. Company officials said they believed a cylinder that carried liquid chlorine to the tank car had cracked.

The chlorine turned to gas as it came in contact with air. Doctors described the gas as similar to that used in World War I. In severe cases, it can cause asphyxiation, heart failure and blindness.

The victims rushed to Cornwall's two hospitals were vomiting and coughing and had trouble breathing, doctors said. Several were placed in oxygen tents.

Ambulances arrived at the hospital every few minutes as emergency staffs quickly as-ssembled. Among those overcome were a policeman and two ambulance attendants who drove into the stricken area.

The chlorine began to dissipate several hours after it stopped leaking from the cylinder.

Trumps of Dummy Can Be Stoppers

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

A trump in dummy may represent a stopper in the opponents' long suit even if you have no intention of ruffing that suit voluntarily.

with the ace of hearts, intending to switch to clubs if allowed to hold the trick.

Naturally you ruff the second heart. At this point you cannot ruff a heart in dummy because you have no hearts to lead. Nevertheless, dummy's trumps are useful as heart stoppers.

Thoughtless Play. It's easy to see how a thoughtless play would lead to defeat. Suppose you lead out your three top trumps, hoping to get a 3-3 break in trumps. You discover the bad trump break and begin to perspire.

Now you try the diamonds. When you lead the fourth diamond from dummy, East ruffs. You discard a club, but you must still lose two club tricks. East returns a club at once, allowing West to win his first club trick. West gets out with a heart, and you must still lose another club.

You could avoid this sad fate by losing your trump trick while dummy can still use a trump to stop the hearts. At the third trick, after ruffing the second heart, lead a low trump from your hand.

East cannot afford to return a heart, since dummy can ruff. Dummy's small trump acts as the stopper.

East does his best by returning a club. You win with the ace of clubs, draw trumps, and run dummy's diamonds. You get four trump tricks, five diamonds, and the ace of clubs for game and rubber.

Religious Faiths Link Forces For Action on Racial Problems

Results of Separate Efforts by Churches

To Halt Segregation Prove Only Spotty

BY GEORGE W. CORNELL

Acting separately, most of the nation's various religious bodies have urged a halt to racial segregation. But the results have been spotty—even in the religious institutions themselves.

So today, they're planning a bigger effort, on an unprecedented joint basis.

For the first time on the American scene, nationwide organizations of Roman Catholics, Orthodox, Protestants and Jews are linking forces for concerted action on racial problems.

Starting Point. To launch the combined approach they've called a "National Conference on Religion and Race" next Jan. 14-17 in Chicago.

Both government and religious leaders see far-reaching potentialities in the step.

It "promises to find ways to translate doctrine into deed, and abstract teaching into concrete action," said the Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake.

Answer: Pass. (If you use weak two-bids, bid two hearts.) This hand is worth an overcall at the level of two even when you are vulnerable, but it is not quite strong enough in top cards for an opening bid of one.

Copyright, 1962.

fact," said Catholic scholar, John Cogley, of the Center for Study of Democratic Institutions.

The interfaith meeting is intended to serve as a starting point for further coordinated action, and closer working relations, on the national, regional and local levels.

For the past decade, religious organizations have issued their own pronouncements, and undertaken their own separate programs, aimed at reducing racial discrimination, in religious activity and elsewhere.

Extensive changes have ensued, with many religious institutions and places of worship becoming integrated, in all parts of the country. But many others have continued on a one-color basis.

"One of the most embarrassing phenomena to thoughtful leaders of religious bodies is the great gulf between actual practices of their constituents in matters of racial relations and the traditions and principles which are professed," said the Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake.

Same Thing. Dr. Blake, chief administrative officer of the United Presbyterian Church, said the issue is "a national, not a sectional problem," and leadership by the full "religious forces of the country" is needed to make relevant their declared ideals.

This is the purpose of the joint move, which came as the different religious bodies became aware that they were saying the same thing about race relations—that they had a common message, and common objectives.

The conference was called by social-action agencies of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, the National Council of Churches and the Synagogue Council of America.

The groups include all three branches of Judaism, most major Protestant and Orthodox bodies, and the Roman Catholic Church in America. Altogether, about 70 agencies are sending participants, and Mrs. Rod Rarick.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

(AP Newsfeatures)

Faith in God Was With Mary as she learned she was to be the Mother of the Messiah.

When she saw the angel, scripture tells us she was troubled at his announcement, "and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be."

The angel's explanation that it would be by the Holy Ghost that she would conceive left the virgin puzzled. And at this point, in St. Luke's account of the incident, appears one of the greatest expressions of faith to be found in the New Testament: "Behold the handmaid of the Lord," said Mary. "Be it done unto me according to thy word."

Japanese, Texans to Sponsor Billy Graham

Evangelist, 600 Baptists from U. S. Will Participate in Crusade in Oriental Cities

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese Baptists plan to bring evangelist Billy Graham and 600 Southern Baptists to Japan next year in a nationwide drive to increase their small flock.

The lay people will split into four-man teams, fanning out into 147 Japanese cities in what a top Graham aide called a crusade of unmatched scope and magnitude.

Leaders of the 15,000-member Baptist Convention of Japan and the 135 American missionaries here stress the Japanese church itself is behind this "New Life Movement" and that Graham and the 600, most of them Texans, are merely coming to help.

The difference between running the show and helping out means much here.

Earlier this year Southern California evangelist Bob Pearce brought a crusade to Japan amid much criticism by Japanese Christian leaders. They contended Pearce's visit was not Japanese-oriented and had political motivations because Pearce once spoke of the need of "protecting Japan from communism."

The Rev. Shuichi Matsumura, a Tokyo Baptist pastor and executive director of the New Life Movement, told newsmen he and his group feel that there will be no reaction to the 1963 effort because "factors are different."

"This movement is Japanese in origin and promotion," he said. Graham is expected to arrive in

Atoms Turned To Timekeeping

Accuracy Main Aim
In Research for International Clock

BY STEPHEN M. AUG
BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — How long is a second?

This is one of the questions scientists at the National Bureau of Standards laboratory here are trying to answer.

And what's more, they feel they are closer to the answer than ever before.

The importance of this instant of time, says Dr. John Richardson, chief of the radio standards laboratory, is manifold.

Importance
First, there is the need for accurate tracking of missiles and satellites through space.

Second, accurate time is invaluable in very long-range communication. And, since time is used to measure radio frequencies, it has assumed greater importance as the demand grows for more space on already congested wave lengths.

Richardson believes, however, that a major breakthrough is about to occur—probably by the end of the year. The big news is a new kind of atomic clock.

Atomic Clock
Atomic clocks, claimed by scientists to be more accurate timepieces than the age-old method of celestial timekeeping, are nothing new. The first such instrument was placed in service in 1948.

The original clock used the motion of ammonia molecules to tell time. Others have used hydrogen and cesium atoms.

The cesium atomic clock was developed for the United States here by Dr. R. C. Mocker and physicist Roger Beehler, based on earlier work in England by Dr. L. Essen.

Cesium Atom
The clock worked on the constant vibration of an atom of cesium — 9,192,631,770 times per second. Since 1959 this clock has provided the United States with a standard frequency and time interval with an accuracy equivalent to a loss or gain of one second in 3,000 years.

Mocker and Beehler now say that with refinements, the cesium clock can be ready with an accuracy of one second in 160,000 years, although they say it hasn't operated long enough to prove its long-range stability to that degree.

The big breakthrough, however, is in the use of a new element — thallium. Until now thallium, a rare soft metal, has been used in making alloys and in the manufacture of optical glass.

More Accuracy
Now, Richardson says, thallium appears to hold promise of far more accuracy than any of the other three elements used in atomic clocks.

The research in the United States and abroad is aimed at a big international decision in 1966.

This is the year in which nearly all nations have decided to go off the astronomical standard of timekeeping and onto the atomic standard, and they will have to decide what kind of atomic clock to use.

The decision to go to the atomic standard was made last year at a meeting in Paris of the General Conference of Weights and Measures.

President Calls on Americans to Mark Rights Anniversary

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has called on Americans as "trustees of freedom" to mark the 171st anniversary of the Bill of Rights Dec. 15.

In a proclamation issued Thursday Kennedy also designated Dec. 10 as Human Rights Day and the week of Dec. 10-17 as Human Rights Week.

The President said in proclaiming Bill of Rights Day, commemorating adoption of the first 10 amendments to the Constitution: "Let us shoulder our responsibilities, as trustees of freedom, to make the Bill of Rights a reality for all our citizens."

Human Rights Week, Kennedy said, should be observed "to celebrate the blessings of liberty for our country."

The 14th anniversary of the adoption by the United Nations of the Universal Declaration on Human Rights falls on Dec. 10.

Kennedy noted in his proclamation that the declaration was adopted "under the leadership of our beloved citizen, Eleanor Roosevelt," when she was a U.S. representative to the United Nations. Mrs. Roosevelt died earlier this month.

Rubble Combed by Treasure Hunters

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Treasure hunters are combing the rubble of a demolished oceanfront estate, searching for negotiable fragments of paper money in denominations up to $100.

Thus far, only one piece of usable cash has been reported found — a $5 bill.

The money was unearthed by bulldozers razing the estate of William R. Taradash. The manager of the estate, J. Robert Sandcock, said the money was probably hidden by the late Mrs. Taradash. The home was built in 1929, the year the Wall Street crash occurred.

The jolly old gentleman can be visited in the beautifully decorated mall Friday nights from 5:30 until 8:30 p.m. and Saturday afternoon from 1 to 4 p.m. The sights and sounds of Christmas fill the all-enclosed mall, making Christmas shopping a pleasant affair for the entire family.

Director Says Street Construction Can't Keep Pace With Traffic

MADISON (AP) — The director of the State Department of Resource Development says large Wisconsin cities may have to consider using existing rail facilities to solve urban transportation problems.

"Automobile traffic is increasing faster than we can build street capacity and it's just a matter of time until...the day of the super traffic jam when no cars at all can move," Director David Carley told a Madison luncheon club today.

Carley singled out problems his department expects will develop in Madison because of population growth, and predicted transportation facilities will have to be almost doubled in less than 20 years.

Do You Feel Your Home is as dry as a desert? It's probably drier, according to William Hartzheim, owner of Menasha Sheet Metal Company, 314 Racine street, Menasha. He says that the effect of this extreme dryness is detrimental to the health of your family, requires more heat for comfort and damages furniture and furnishings.

During the long winter heating season, the relative humidity in the average American home is only 13 per cent. . . 10 per cent drier than Death Valley and twice as dry as the Sahara Desert.

Have you discovered static electricity in your home since the cold weather began? This is one of the first signs of excessive dryness, air which is robbing your furniture and house of moisture. Even surface fibers of the carpets dry out and break under foot.

Perhaps the most important, however, is the better health you will enjoy with proper humidity furnished by an Aprilaire humidifier from Menasha Sheet Metal.

Cold and flu germs live indefinitely in dry air but die as the humidity rises, researches at Chicago University have found. As well as being lethal to germs, moistened air keeps the mucous membranes of the nose and throat . . . important defense against infection . . . functioning properly. Also the dry air discomfort of stuffy nasal passages is eliminated.

There are Aprilaire models for any type of heating system, as well as a portable model. Call Menasha Sheet Metal at PA 2-3653 for an estimate.

Future of Foreign Aid

There would appear to be considerable significance in the fact that President Kennedy has appointed his budget director, David E. Bell, to head the foreign aid program upon the resignation of Fowler Hamilton.

It was widely guessed that Hamilton resigned because some of his ideas on foreign aid did not mesh with those of other influential members of the Kennedy administration. Hamilton had resisted efforts to increase the foreign aid budget, he favored an increasing emphasis on loans rather than grants, and he was trying to channel more funds to projects which would help underdeveloped countries develop their own economies and to countries which pledged to adopt social reforms.

The Post-Crescent pointed out recently that the administration faces the challenge of justifying to Congress the huge amount of funds being expended on foreign aid on the basis of concrete results accomplished and efficiency in their management. Congress has been growing increasingly restive over this phase of federal spending.

With his background as director of the budget Bell should be intimately familiar with the problem of stretching foreign aid dollars as far as they will go. It may well be that he will continue to place the emphasis in the foreign aid program on the same kind of approach which his predecessor favored.

Who Can Halt Federal Control?

Among the resolutions passed by the Council of Chief State School Officers at their convention in Miami in November was backing for federal aid to education but with the urging that federal control be made "illegal and impossible." A group called the Bipartisan Committee for Federal Aid to Education also lists restrictions against federal control as a first step toward getting such aid. But is such an idea possible—or really desired?

Ten days ago President Kennedy issued an executive order forbidding racial, religious or similar discriminations in the sale or lease of federally financed housing. The President said the order was given because it was "in the public interest" at this time. More practical observers know that the timing centered around the fact that Congress was not in session and able to retaliate. Such restrictions have never passed the southern Congressmen.

This newspaper has firmly backed anti-discrimination moves around the country and believes that any race or religious bias in public institutions is a disavowal of democracy and equal opportunities for all. It further has decried the more subtle but often as bitter acts and attitudes of prejudice practiced by individuals and private organizations. But slapping down a further federal restriction by Presidential decree may not only be illegal; it may set a precedent. And exactly how far can the federal government intelligently enforce this order? Can a religious seminary which has borrowed low interest money for construction from the federal government no longer require denominational membership as an entrance requirement? Will there be future executive orders specifying courses or faculty-student ratios in institutions which have built their dormitories or classrooms with federal money?

It appears unlikely that the latest executive order will be challenged in court. Keeping out federal control then would seem to be impossible. The insistence upon it by educators we must suspect is primarily to lull the opposition to federal aid.

But we are not even convinced that, if there is more federal aid to education in the future than we already have today—and it is considerable—that a certain amount of control is not wise. If schools in some sections of the nation are in such desperate straits that they must turn to the federal government, we would rather Congress put some strings upon the money. It should not be done at the whim, however well-reasoned, of one man in the White House.

New Waterpower Economics

The Union Electric Company of St. Louis is building an electrical generating plant in the Ozark Mountains which will be powered by water which must be pumped from the base of a mountain 800 feet to the top before it can be dropped into the generating plant to produce electricity. The odd part of this program is that it will require three kilowatt hours of electricity to produce two kilowatt hours of electricity in the waterpower plant. This has proved to be a profitable way to produce electricity because the water will be pumped during the evenings and week-end hours when the demand for power is slack. The pumps will be powered by electricity from steam generators elsewhere along the Union Electric system. The water will be stored on the top of the mountain until demand for power reaches a peak. Then it will be released to turn the generators to produce electricity.

The plant is called Taum Sauk after Missouri's highest mountain. Here are some of the factors which make the waterpower plant feasible. The cost of producing the three kilowatt hours is relatively low since it is produced by equipment that would otherwise be idle. In fact the only cost to the company will be the fuel. The waterpower plant won't need coal storage for handling equipment. It won't need steam lines or boilers and it will cost only $50 million to build compared with an estimated cost of $67 million for a steam power plant with the same capacity. The waterpower plant will have a capacity of 350,000 kilowatts when it starts next June. Further there will be a saving of approximately $600,000 a year on labor costs. It is possible to fully automate a waterpower plant but that is still not possible with steam plants.

Good Eating More Plentiful

It is with a touch of sadness and a trace of nostalgia that we read the news story that the Duncan Hines people no longer will issue their famed An Adventure in good Eating books.

Duncan Hines, the original tracer of good food, has been dead since 1959, but his company has continued to issue the books. But this week, the firm announced that it would no longer put out the volume.

The reason? There's been a tremendous growth in the quality and quantity of eating places in these United States and the traveler no longer has to take his gastronomical life into his hands when he enters an unknown restaurant.

For the traveler of years past, the Good Eating books were almost a necessity. Since 1936, an annual volume had made its appearance listing the best spots to eat along with the prices and the specialties of the house.

Perhaps it's a tribute to the U. S. restaurant business that the book is being discontinued. Maybe we can get along without it.

But the book will be missed—even if only for sentimental reasons.

Internal Revenue Decision Shows Lack of Sense

From Exchanges

The recent tax court decision that a businessman can deduct the cost of taking his wife on a business trip only if she does some work is creating some peculiar developments, the Wall Street Journal reports.

The financial paper quotes a Cleveland executive as saying

"not long ago, an executive might take his secretary on a trip and list her as his wife. Now he's more likely to take his wife and list her as his secretary."

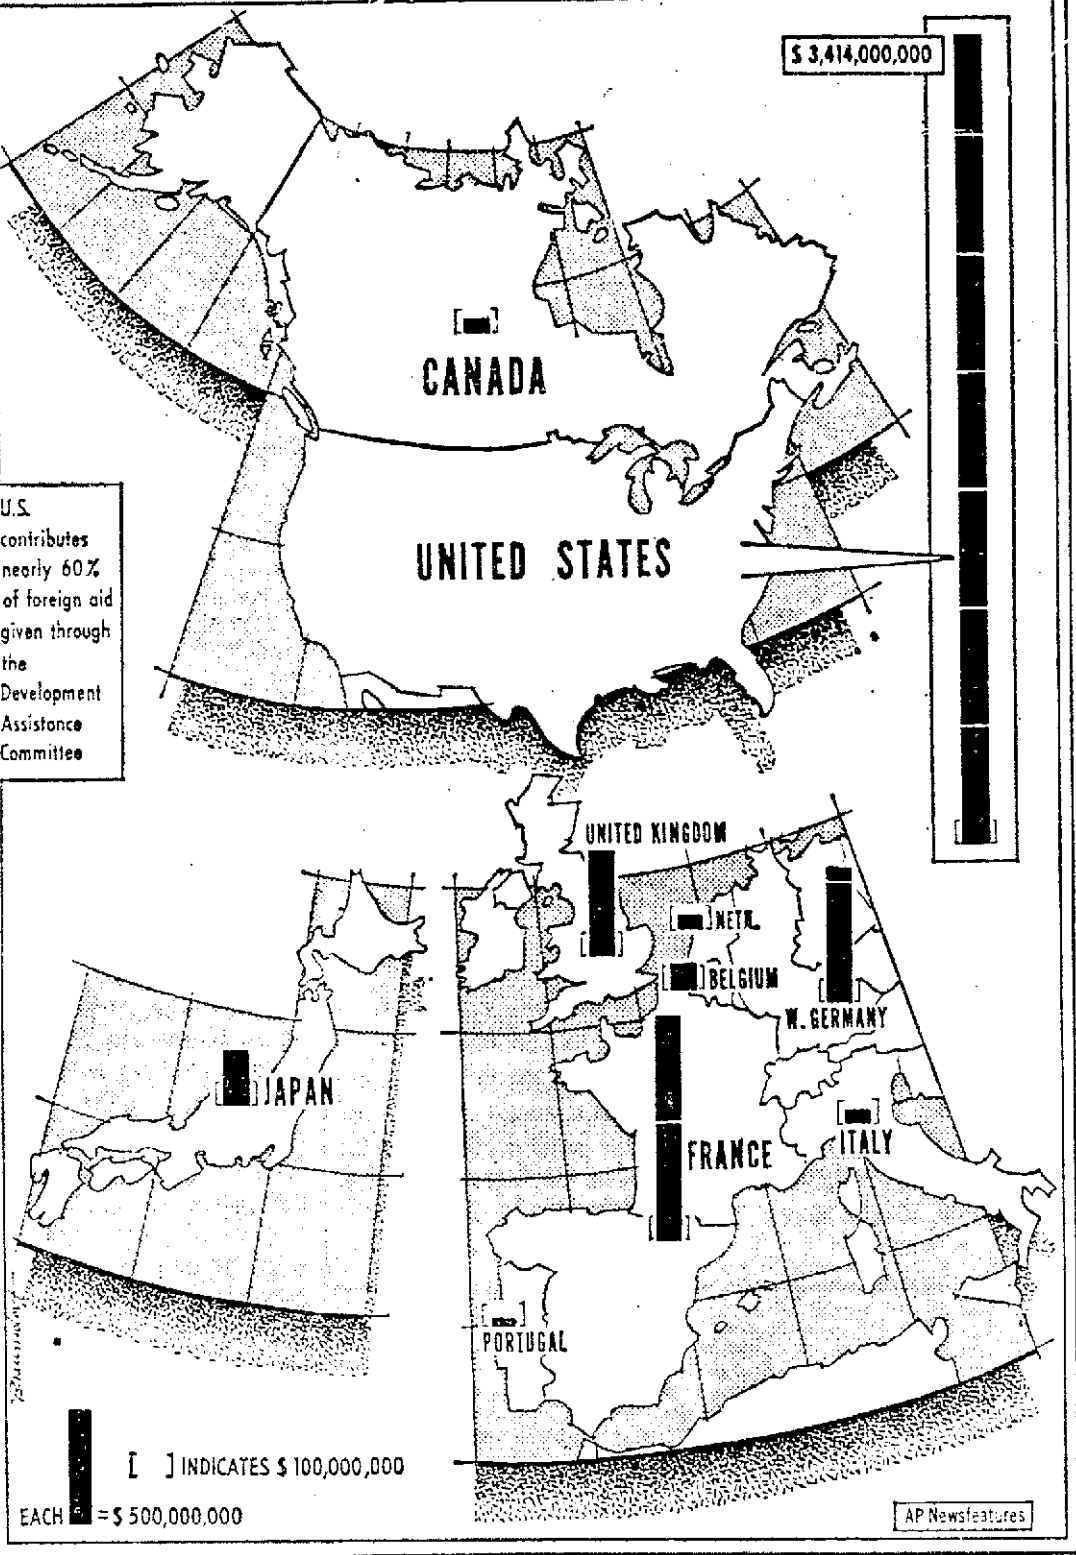

So the paper reports this may be a gain for the wife. She may get some trips she wouldn't otherwise acquire. Nevertheless, our reaction to the whole mess is that it is downright deleterious that our tax system has reached this low ebb. Again it is demonstrated what the Internal Revenue Service lacks most of all is plain common sense.

JFK Lays Law Down to Russians—and Family

From Exchanges

There is a sneaking suspicion creeping up on us that not only has President Kennedy "laid the law" down to the Russians but also in the family.

Maybe we are overly suspicious but have you noticed lately that Mrs. Kennedy has remained pretty much in the background since that expedition to Italy?

Hamilton's Resignation Recalls Old Arguments Over Foreign Aid

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Responsibility for the billions of dollars given annually by the United States in foreign aid will soon pass to new hands.

Fowler Hamilton, 51-year-old lawyer who has headed the Agency for International Development since September, 1961, resigned to return to private business.

Hamilton said he resigned for purely personal reasons. But there were reports that he quit because of criticism of his resistance to heavy foreign aid spending by some members of the Kennedy administration.

CARRIES MAIN BURDEN

The U. S. is still carrying the main burden of assisting underdeveloped nations.

The Development Assistance Committee, an international group whose aim is the coordination of all aid programs, reported last July the U. S. supplied $3,414,000 of the total $5,953,000 disbursed by the 10 industrial nations forming the DAC.

This figure covers long-term financial aid, and does not include "private flow" the term applied to all non-governmental aid.

In millions of U. S. dollars, the report shows the following contributions by other DAC countries:

Belgium, $106.4; Canada, $61.0; France, $952.7, with most going to her former colonies; West Germany, $573.6; Italy, $68.2; Japan, $231.6; Netherlands, $89.0; Portugal, $31.5, and the United Kingdom, $445.0.

Following announcement of his resignation, Hamilton dropped plans for a two-week trip to Paris, Bonn, Rome and Brussels where he intended trying to convince several industrialized nations to undertake a larger share in the aid programs. This task will probably be assumed by his successor, David E. Bell.

When Hamilton undertook the job, AID was a newly-formed agency designed to replace the International Cooperation Administration and the Development Loan Fund in order to con-

Real Berlin Danger Is That Red 'Salami' Tactics Will Succeed

BY ROSCOE DRUMMOND

BERLIN—The danger to West Berlin is not past.

It will soon be greater than ever if two things are not done:

1—The buildup of Western conventional forces by the European countries—principally France, Britain, and Italy—which have fallen far behind their NATO commitments.

2—The appointment of a supreme commander of the Allied forces in Berlin to permit prompt decisionmaking in order to deal with the Soviet "salami tactics" of eating away at Western rights in ways which in past months have brought futile protests, not firm counteraction.

That road—the road of hard words and soft action—leads to the steady decay of Western rights and the loss of Berlin itself.

The danger today is that in light of Cuba we are better prepared to defend Berlin against the attack least likely to occur—by large Soviet forces—and are inadequately prepared to defend Berlin from the attack most likely to occur—the continued Soviet elbowing and harassing of Western rights against which we are either too slow or too divided to reply.

That is the danger and if the divided Allied councils in Berlin are not soon united, we face the project of yielding by default what we are pledged to preserve.

It can be done.

AGREE ON COMMANDER

Obviously, the best way to do it is for Britain, France and the United States to agree on a supreme commander of the Allied forces here with adequate authority to act.

The best candidate for the job is Gen. Lucius Clay, who has earned the confidence of the Allies, the trust of the Berliners, solidate almost all foreign aid functions.

Major task of AID is to persuade countries which get U. S. aid to use the money on projects which would promote their economies and to adopt social reforms. Hamilton reiterated this policy when his resignation was announced.

Favors Shifts to Loans

Hamilton favored shifting most U. S. aid from grants to a loan program. These loans, with interest rates going down to zero, are supposed to be repaid sometime in dollars.

During his tenure Hamilton's recommendation was that 80 per cent of the funds go to 15 countries where there is a reasonable basis for bringing stability to the economy. The rest of the money would go out mainly for good will.

The Development Assistance Committee serves as a major arm of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, the European trade group which links the six-nation Common Market and the "Outer 7" group. It is a clearing house where foreign aid problems are discussed and it gathers information on how member nations can best help underdeveloped areas.

In 1961 James W. Riddleberger, former U. S. ambassador to Yugoslavia and Greece, was named DAC chairman.

and the respect of the Soviets. He could do it. His presence and his authority would even be a deterrent to Soviet harassment.

The failure to concert Allied forces in the three sectors of West Berlin is the most inviting weakness in the Allied position here today. Military decision-making by committee means dilatory decision-making. Such delay almost always means abandoning any course of action. It means inaction by default because, unless the West can reply instantly to Soviet intrusion, then the action is either too late or doubly dangerous, and doubly difficult.

Remember the opportunity we lost to use the right of Western access to East Berlin when we allowed an East German youth, shot by the East Zone police attempting to escape over the wall, to lie for hours bleeding to death a few yards from the sector line. A British ambulance helplessly stood by, hesitant and, in the end, acquiescent in this denial of the Western right of access even on such an errand of mercy.

It can be said with knowledge that a Soviet official has admitted that, if a U. S. ambulance accompanied by U. S. force had asserted the right of access, the East Zone police were not authorized to resist.

MIGHT ACT UNILATERALLY

The American government has already informed the city of Berlin that if there is a Soviet attack on its security, we will defend it—unilaterally, if necessary. But Berlin can be lost by failing to reply promptly to the other kind of attack—the "salami"-style erosion of Western rights.

I suggest that if we cannot get agreement for the appointment of a supreme Allied commander in Berlin, we must act unilaterally against "salami" attacks or we will end up by losing the war without fighting the battle.

And for defense of Berlin—to which all NATO is committed—NATO conventional forces urgently need to be brought up to the agreed levels. The failure to do so not only endangers Berlin but risks a nuclear war in Europe, because NATO does not have the conventional forces to counter a major conventional attack anywhere on its borders.

Simple Names Like Mukwonago Needed

From The Milwaukee Sentinel

With the outbreak of war between India and China we are once again confronted with the necessity of learning the strange names of strange places. If we had ever heard of Daulat Beg Oldi, we had forgotten it. And some goes for Ladakh, Chippach valley, Towang and Karakoram.

Why can't these remote geographical regions ever have some simple and familiar sounding place names, like Oconomowoc, Mukwonago, Wausaukee or Mazomanie?

Buchanan Facing $24 to $52 Hikes In Tax Rate

Charge Will Vary Between $47.60, $75.30, Compared to $23 for 1962

District	To Be Raised	Rate	Total Rate
Kimberly (No. 6)	$32.012	$41.00	$58.00
Wrightstown (No. 1)	4.555	$30.60	$47.60
Kaukauna (No. 2)	60.224	$37.60	$57.80
Appleton (No. 10)	14.301	$58.30	$75.30

Residents of the town paid $23 per $1,000 last year. The school rate was $8.

Town of Buchanan residents, like those in Grand Chute, will find their new tax bills will take a pretty big chunk out of the contents of their wallets.

Residents face increases in the total tax rate ranging from $94 to $52. The rate required for all purposes other than school district taxes actually is changed little. But annexation of the lone school district to adjoining districts caused big hikes in the tax rate. Total rates will range from $47.60 to $75.30. Last year it was $23.

Part of the hike is brought about because taxpayers this year must provide money for next year's school budget as well as "catch up" for last year. The latter charge will not be repeated.

Little Control
The town board has little control of the tax rate. Almost all the amount of money to be raised is billed to it and it merely collects the funds for other governmental units.

The total amount levied is $200,652. Of that, $89,558 will be paid by all taxpayers. This includes $1,536 in state taxes, $26,308 for county charges and $30,375 for high school tuition and transportation and vocational school taxes. Operation of the town government will require $31,399.

School district charges amount to another $110,093, and will be apportioned at varying rates, depending on the area of residence.

The tax rate for all town residents to finance state and county expenses is $10.03 per $1,000 of assessed valuation. The tax rate to finance town charges is $6.97, for a total of $17. To be added to this rate are rates for each of four individual school districts.

School Change
Prior to this year the town had been one school district. With attachments, pupils were sent to Wrightstown, Kaukauna, Appleton and Kimberly.

Individual school tax rates, amounts to be raised and total tax rate for each district are:

Absentee Ballots Give S. D. Democrat Lead
SIOUX FALLS, S.D. (AP) — Voiced absentee ballots pushed Democrat George McGovern into a 481-vote lead over incumbent Republican U.S. Sen. Joe Bottom with 50 of the state's 67 counties completing recounts of ballots from the Nov. 6 election.

McGovern, former food for peace director, picked up 61 votes in the county embracing Rapid City, another 69 in Sioux Falls because of the voided ballots.

Officials voided them out because they said they had not been properly stamped by election boards. Bottom backers have indicated they would later contest that action in court.

Sixth Crash in Week
The crash was the sixth major airplane accident within a week.

The other five took a combined toll of 181 lives.

In terms of fatalities, the worst one occurred last Tuesday in Peru when a Los Angeles-bound Varig Airlines' 707 jet crashed into a mountain minutes before it was to make a landing at Lima Airport.

All 97 persons aboard—80 passengers and a crew of 17—were killed.

Last Monday, 27 persons died when a Brazilian airliner collided with a small private plane over Sao Paulo state in Brazil.

There were three plane crashes a week ago Friday: A United Air Lines Viscount fell near Ellicott City, Md., killing 17 persons.

A Portuguese military transport plane went down on St. Thomas island off West Africa, killing 19 of 32 persons aboard.

A Hungarian airliner crashed near Paris, and all 21 persons aboard were killed.

Royals Whipped Nats, 130-117

Cincinnati Moves Within One Game of 2nd Place Syracuse

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Cincinnati's on-rushing Royals have closed another notch in the Eastern Division chase and are in good shape to tighten matters still further in the National Basketball Association.

The Royals whipped Syracuse 130-117 in the only NBA game scheduled Friday night, moving to within one game of the second-place Nats and to within 2½ of leading Boston.

What's more, Boston and Syracuse tangle on the Celtics' home court tonight while the Nats play off-beaten Chicago.

The Royals' victory, built on the scoring of Jack Twyman and Oscar Robertson, was Cincinnati's third straight and eighth in its last 10 games.

Hits 19 Points
Twyman popped in 19 points in the first quarter as the Royals rushed out to a 15-point advantage. The closest Syracuse came was an eight point deficit, 119-111 with 90 seconds to go, but Twyman and Robertson combined for seven quick points and the Royals were out of danger.

Robertson finished with 31 points, Twyman with 30. Johnny Kerr led the losers with 17 points. The Boston-Syracuse clash is the feature of a Boston Garden doubleheader tonight. Detroit plays New York in the opener, nets at a bustling rate, conference pre-season favorite Red St. Louis at Los Angeles complete the schedule.

Minnesota Pucksters
The Irish stepped in range for two periods but Reedsville's overall depth enabled them to gradually lengthen the lead after the intermission.

Tip Michigan Tech, 3-2
HOUGHTON, Mich. (AP)—Minnesota scored in the opening three minutes and led the rest of the way Friday night as it posted a 3-2 decision over Michigan Tech, defending champ of the NCAA and Western Collegiate Hockey Association.

It was the first loss in 23 games. The Irish extended back two seasons, for the first time since 1959-60.

Klahn Leads Winners
Klahn's 21 points were high for the winners. Ray Lopponow and Dick Diener contributed 14 and 12, respectively.

Ted Bodoh with 13 points and Dick Vande Weterling with 11 were high-point men for Freedom.

Winneconne outscored Omro in the opening intermission.

Pravda Accuses Soviet Farms Of Maintaining Pro Athletes
MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet collective farms were accused Monday of maintaining professional football teams, rather than investing their money in farm equipment.

The accusation was made by an official party newspaper Pravda, which said this was happening in a number of places. It singled out for criticism a farm in the Slavyansk district of the Krasnodar territory, near the Black Sea.

The farm's name: "Road to Communism."

Defended by Chairman Klavdiev, Pravda quoted the farm's head bookkeeper, Pavel Volkov, who reported: "For the second year in a row, 16 football players are living on the collective farm. Each is receiving a monthly salary, plus restaurant money, plus guaranteed funds, plus traveling expenses. All told, amateurs by any means."

every period enroute to a 60-43 decision.

Pete Theix hit 20 points for the Wolves to capture scoring honors. Paul Miller tallied 12 to pace Omro.

The Polar Bears had very little difficulty posting a 63-45 win over Shiocton. In fact, Hortonville led a 32-8 lead over the cold shooting Shiocton at halftime and then built it to a 54-24 margin by the end of three periods.

Five players scored nine or more points for the win divided Hortonville attack. Vic Ogden was high with 13. Tom Johnson and Allan Hill each had 10 for the losers.

Hilbert used a fast break offense and a pressing defense to pull away from Wrightstown in the 59-32 triumph. It was 29-11 at halftime and their was never much doubt as the taller visitors controlled the backboards.

Mike Weinreis dropped in nine baskets for Hilbert to top all scorers. Andy Schaefer had 11 for Hilbert and John Lamers led the Tigers with 11. Schaefer a sophomore, did most of the rebounding for the Hilbert team.

St. John Fails To Get Scoring Attack Underway

DEPERE — St. John High School failed to get a scoring attack going until the final quarter and dropped a 63-49 Fox Valley Catholic Conference decision to Abbot Pennings High Friday night.

Pennings rolled up a 17-5 first quarter advantage and increased the margin to 33-11 at halftime. At the three-quarter mark it was 46-21.

The Dutchmen came to life with a press in the final quarter and stole the ball repeatedly. The Chuters bagged 28 points in the final segment to 17 for the Squires. Pennings reserves saw most of the action in the final period.

Top scorer for the game was Tom Van Rite of Pennings with 19 points on six buckets and seven of eight free throws.

Sophomore Bruce Hammen notched 18 for St. John and senior John Vanervenhoest hit 14.

AHS Fails to Solve Defense, Defeated, 57-52

A small, quick-handed Sheboygan North High School basketball team out-scraped Appleton's Terrors here Friday night to record a 57-52, Fox River Valley Conference season-opening victory.

AHS couldn't cope with the lightning-like moves of the Raiders, who stole the ball at least a dozen times and used a zone defense to seal off the approaches to the basket as well as anyone has in the AHS gym in recent years. The Terrors got away almost 30 lead minutes through the first half and went on to a 59-38 victory over Fond du Lac Winnebago in the opening Badger Lutheran Conference game of the season here Friday night.

Clintonville Edges Kaukauna in Overtime Mid-Eastern Thriller

BY JIM HARP Post-Crescent Staff Writer
KAUKAUNA—Guard Lyle Gluth dropped in a free throw with 18 seconds remaining in an overtime period to give Clintonville High School a 57-56 Mid-Eastern Conference victory over Kaukauna here Friday night.

Gluth, who came within a whisper of being taken from the game when he missed on four straight free throws, redeemed himself in the overtime as he scored all five of Clintonville's points and was a ballhawk on defense.

Midway in the final stanza Coach Carl Bruggink of the Trunkers had a substitute all ready to go in for Gluth when he changed his mind. Gluth came on to be the game's hero.

It was the conference opener for both teams and a close battle all the way. Kaukauna opened up a big lead, but a sharp free throw and ball handling in the first half drew countered with a pair of period. Two Rivers — Two Rivers' Purple Raiders displayed a hot shooting percentage in the second quarter to pull to an 80-65 victory over Neenah's defending co-champion Rockets, in first round Mid-Eastern Conference play Friday night.

An overall smooth floor game, combined with a 27-point effort by senior guard Jim Schroeder was enough to offset a height advantage held by the Rockets. The teams were tied at 21 points apiece early in the second frame when the Raiders, at a time from the floor and off-balance, pulled to a 46-33 half-time lead. During the stretch, Two Rivers hit the nets at a blistering 73 per cent clip.

The second half was mostly ball control for the host Raiders, as they consistently maintained no quarter sinking four of 18 shots less than an 11-point lead. With 19 minutes remaining in the game, the Rockets, led by Dave Neubauer and Dick Rogness, closed the gap to 62-52. They could do no better, however, as Two Rivers again controlled play for the remaining minutes.

Rogness Hits 21
Rogness led Neenah scorers with 21 points, with Neubauer hitting 9 buckets for 18 points. The Rockets showed their ball-handling skills while the Raiders connected with Dick Kuehl and Ewalt on six of 15 and in the final period with many reserves seeing action, the winners hit on eight of 22 shots while the losers managed to sink two of 14 tries. In this period many of the losers' shots were of the desperation variety in a vain attempt to narrow the gap.

Neenah will be looking for its first conference win next Friday, when the Rockets play host to Kimberly's Papermakers. Two Rivers will be shooting for its second victory at New London, also on Friday.

Braves Sell Nottebart To Colts, Get Larker

NEW YORK (AP)—The Houston Colts, carrying out their promise to make every effort to improve their club for 1963, acquired five players today in trades with San Francisco's defending Giants and Roman Mejias of the Milwaukee Braves.

The Houston newcomers are Don Nottebart, a right-handed pitcher from Milwaukee and manager Paul Richards. "We still southpaw Dick Lemay and out-felder Manuel Mota from San Francisco. Two others, pitcher Connie Grob and outfielder Jim Larker, both from Louisville, were shipped to the Colts' Oklahoma City farm club in the Pacific Coast League.

Lemay and Mota were obtained in a trade that sent second baseman Joe Amalfitano to the Giants. Nottebart, a 26-year-old relief pitcher, was purchased outright from the Braves for a reported $25,000.

Grob and Bolger, former major leaguers, came in exchange for Norm Larker, who was expected to alternate with Tommy Aaron at first base for the Braves. Larker became expendable.

KIMBERLY — After battling on near even terms for the first period the Kimberly Papermakers began to move in the second frame and won a 74-46 game over the New London Bulldogs to open Mid-East Conference play here Friday night.

The taller Papermakers completely dominated play limiting the losers to practically one shot at a time from the floor and off-balance. The New London Bulldogs passed to Steve Hoier scored a free throw which was matched by Ken Egert to give New London a 2-point lead before Levknecht narrowed the margin with a charity toss. Badger Cagers Open Against Air Academy

Kimberly's Hearden Tops Erickson's List of Reserves

MADISON (AP)—Coach John Erickson's Wisconsin basketball team has lofty ambitions this year so it is fitting the Badgers open the season tonight at an elevation of 5,900 feet against the Air Force academy at Colorado Springs. The opener against the Falcons is the first contest of a two game western trip that kicks off the Badgers' schedule this year.

Monday Wisconsin travels to Tucson to meet Arizona University. Erickson's high hopes for his 1962-63 team with eight returning lettermen from the squad that compiled a 17-7 record and earned a surprising second place finish in the Big Ten conference.

He will be throwing a veteran lineup against Air Force's Ken Siebel, 6-4, and Tom Gwyn, 6-6, at forwards; Jack Brens, 6-8, at center; and Mike O'Melia, 5-11, and Lon Ostrom, 6-4, at guards.

Play Full Squad
Siebel, last year's leading Badger scorer, averaged 16.3 points per game for all games and carried an average of better than 20 points a game in conference play.

Erickson indicated all his team's pre-conference play would be aimed at preparing for the Big Ten race and a possible title shot. "That's so we can fight for the national prize later," he said.

So the other seven players making the trip can expect to see lots of action as Erickson works on finding the best combination. Top reserves are Don Hearden, Wisconsin's second best scorer last year with an 11.7 average, Gene Englund, and guard Don Patterson. Others making the trip are Bob Wittig, Dave Grams, Ed Laskos and Jim Bohlen. Bohlen is the only sophomore.

Wisconsin whipped the Falcons 80-67 in the only meeting between the two teams at Madison in 1960.

For the Vikings it was a team victory, one which showed up in the scoring column, in the rebounding, in the shooting, but especially in the passing. Using an occasional fast break and a pattern offense, Lawrence frequently caught the Knox defense off-stride and worked in for twisting layups.

First Six Points

Groser scored the first six points for Lawrence and then Steve Nault, a junior opening his first game, popped in four more. Ungrodt's layup opened an avalanche which was to give the Vikes a 20-10 lead. Knox scored the next six points before Menasha's Bill Prange counted on a 20 foot jump shot. Mike Clair scored the first four points, followed with two free throws and a layup and the Vikes had the 10 point margin restored. Hoover's second half scoring spree began early. The 6' 4" jumper hit only two points (46-37) early in the fourth quarter, but was unable to pull the first eight points for Law-rence. In the next five minutes of re-venge as the second half opened, persistent pursuit, AHS compiled this, along with a jumper by a 10-3 point edge to narrow its def- Ungrodt, restored a 39-30 lead.

Bays Will Try to Get Championship Express Rolling Again in Ram Tilt

BY DAVE O'HARA

Associated Press Sports Editor

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Green Bay Packers, jolted by their first loss of the season Thanksgiving Day at Detroit, attempt to get their championship express rolling again Sunday in a meeting with the Los Angeles Rams, the National Football League doormat.

Owner of a 10-1 record in quest of a third straight Western Division title and the right to defend their NFL championship, the Packers are an overwhelming favorite against the injury-riddled Rams, who have only one victory and a tie in 11 starts.

Another sellout crowd of some 46,000 is assured for the 1:06 p.m. CST, kickoff at Milwaukee County Stadium in Green Bay's final "home" game before winding up the regular season with appearances in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi has cracked the whip in stern fashion in conducting rugged workouts in full pads this week. The Packers offense slowed against Baltimore despite a victory Nov. 18 and then was clobbered five days later by the Detroit defense.

Technical Foul In Last 4 Seconds Gives West Win

Illegal Time Out by Oshkosh Costly in Conference Opener

Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY — West High's John Drew dotted a busy question mark that hung over Franklin Junior High on Friday night with a clutch free throw in the final four seconds to give the Wildcats a 52-51 win over Oshkosh.

Fans leaving the gym were still wondering about the weird ending that saw Oshkosh slapped with a technical foul in those waning seconds for calling a time out when they did not have any legal ones left.

After a lengthy discussion over the officials' decision, Drew was singled out by West Coach Bob Kloss for the vital toss and the slick southpaw popped it cleanly through the nets to break a 51-51 tie that had been engineered just seconds earlier on a pair of free throws by Don Doherty.

Conference Debut

The victory, a happy Fox River Valley Conference debut for the Wildcats, was the result of a struggle against the hot-shooting Indians. West trailed by as much as eight points midway in the third period before blazing back into the game early in the final stanza.

It gave West a 2-1 season record and primes the Cats for successive invasions of rugged Manitowish and title favorite Sheboygan South the next two weeks.

Drew's clutch free throw was the climax to a hectic fourth period that saw the score tied at 42-42, 46-46 and 51-51. In between times, Oshkosh held the lead five times and West twice.

A Drew jumper gave West a 46-47 advantage with 3:06 remaining but Tom Boyce and Paul Cibula failed to convert on free throws at 1:32 and the visitors' Roger Beck dropped in a jumper through a maze of Wildcat arms for a 49-48 Oshkosh lead with 55 seconds on the clock.

The Indians' Tom Stroede then fouled Boyce and Tom hit the first to knot it again but missed the second and Bill Steinhilber drove in for an Oshkosh basket and 51-49 lead with 33 seconds left. The Indians then threw a tight zone at the Cats, who worked around until Boyce shot from the corner, only to miss. But Beck fouled Doherty on the rebound and with nine seconds left, the ruzzed center cleanly netted both guts.

Oshkosh brought the ball in and called time out. When they tossed it in again, Doherty scrambled in front of Beck and tied him up. It was at this point that the officials ruled Beck, the Indians' captain called time out and incurred the technical foul.

Oshkosh Coach Don Erickson said after the game that he had called to his players to take time out that Steinhilber had signaled him that they did not have any left.

Erickson said that it was then,

To Your Good Health Inflamed Diverticulum Becomes Diverticulitis

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. Dear Dr. Molner I have diverticulitis and have a hard time with constipation I take milk of magnesia every night eat bland food and drink a lot of milk Do you have a special diet? I have been told not to have an operation - T P

Diverticulitis, much more common than people yet realize warrants surgery only if there are severe complications, such as obstruction, bleeding or perforation.

The aliment primarily is an out-pouching of the intestine or "diverticulum." If inflamed it becomes diverticulitis.

Sticking to a bland diet as you are doing, thus avoiding fibrous or rough foodstuffs which could further irritate the diverticulum is the right thing to do. You don't need any rigid or special diet.

The constipation is another matter, however, and if you report this to your doctor he can help you.

Use of a preparation containing sodium dioctyl-sulfosuccinate and there are now quite a few of them is beneficial. Another way is to take bulk producers of which agar is one. Prune juice is a good natural laxative.

Remember that constipation of the ten can be corrected by getting into the habit of bowel action at some regular time each day. Rectal suppositories can aid in getting this time habit established.

Pregnancy in 50's

Dear Dr. Molner I just read where the new birth control pills mean that women now can't come pregnant in the 50's or even as old as 60. Can't this be prevented? - MRS W E

I read the same reports very carefully and didn't interpret them the way you did. If you look again you will see that the doctor who reported this said it might happen. It also might not and I'm not going to try to guess which will turn out to be correct.

A Canadian doctor made the remark in connection with a study of the way the ovaries perform their function and he suggested that medications for suppression of ovulation might permit the ovaries to maintain their potential for a longer time.

His approach is reasonable and it offers a useful subject to study but it will take at least some years to determine what is going to happen.

Pain in Knees

Dear Dr. Molner My son, 13 developed severe pain in his knees last March X rays showed Osgood-Schlatter disease. The doctor suggested we immobilize him as much as possible and wrap his legs in wide elastic bandages. He has been checked three times since then twice without removing the bandages. Lately I notice bruises and swelling around the knees I keep him as quiet as I can but am worried and would appreciate any further information about treatment. Is there a specialist for this type of disease? - MRS McG

This isn't a very common problem, but it scares the daylights out of parents and I get a great many inquiries about it since it is a "new" disease each time a family encounters it.

Rest and waiting are the only known treatments - and the only necessary ones. With this care the condition will ultimately correct itself. The specialist for this or rough foodstuffs which could further irritate the diverticulum is the right thing to do. You don't need any rigid or special diet.

$10 Million Budget Set For Oshkosh

kosh school system was going to cost the towns could have built their own high school and run it cheaper.

He also added "I don't want to pay for bridge games in the city hall." (Cribbage is part of the recreation program.)

Nordquist moved to have $100,000 cut from the school budget in general but was beaten 10-1 with the other three town chairmen present (Warren Miracle, Vinland, Byron Gunz, Black Wolf, and Lyle Raddatz, Nekim) siding with the Oshkosh councilmen.

Nordquist then attempted to have the recreation department levy deleted from the town tax rolls. Although Flanagan ruled such a motion could not be considered, it was put to a vote and lost by the same margin as the first amendment.

Nordquist then voted against passage of both the school and general budgets.

Both the town chairmen and the councilmen agreed that a more detailed breakdown of the school budget should be given to town and city officials.

The school budget as now presented includes only a summary by departments. Superintendent of Schools Perry Tipler agreed for next year to present the school budget in more detail.

All major city departments showed budget increases over 1962 but in some cases functions were transferred from one department to another.

Public safety increased from $1,138,131 to $1,260,772 and now constitutes exactly one-third of the city operating budget. Other department totals are street maintenance, $673,853, up from $639,431.

Garbage and refuse collection and disposal, $228,887, up from $233,802; recreation facilities, $417,861, up from $399,292; and administration, $285,416, up from $255,383.

Papers Urged to Expand Science News Coverage

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Dr. Athelstan F. Spilhaus of Minneapolis, chairman of a publishers' scientific advisory group, believes that newspapers should expand their coverage of science news.

Dr. Spilhaus, dean of the University of Minnesota Institute of Technology, also told the science committee of the American Newspaper Publishers Association that newspapers should reemphasize the news significance of pure research.

He said that newspapers are "making every effort to do a good job but they have a long way to go in it." He added that the small group of newspaper science writers presently at work are "plenty good," but there are not enough of them.

Spilhaus said the reporting of science news is not given the emphasis of news in other fields such as politics. He recommended that newspapers encourage the development of competent science writers by giving them opportunities to study and keep abreast of discoveries.

OSHKOSH — Major damage to an upstairs bedroom was reported Friday from a fire started by a cigarette in a house occupied by Edna Thomas at 322 Church Ave.

Fire department officials reported a cigarette which had been left on an ash tray fell to the floor, igniting the rug and other furniture. The fire was discovered at 12:47 p.m. Friday.

Mrs. Robert Dietrick, 1829 E. Newberry St., reported to police her purse and wallet containing $36 were taken while she was working at a downtown Appleton store.

Contents of the purse were found nearby, and the wallet, containing papers but no money, was found by post office workers in a mail sack. Police said the person who took the purse apparently dropped the wallet in a mail box after emptying it of the cash.

Two other occupants of the truck when it was stopped by police were released.

There were a 16-year-old Neenah girl, released to her father, and an 18-year-old Neenah youth. Both denied knowing the vehicle was stolen.

Brockman reported the truck as being stolen between the hours of 7:30 p.m. and 1 p.m. Friday. Police said the 17-year-old admitted taking the truck without permission.

Mrs. Nick Wiza said that her son, Maynard, was playing in the family yard when he disappeared shortly before dark. The Wizas live in a small home in the town of Sharon, about 14 miles east of Stevens Point.

Sheriff's deputies joined the child after Wiza reported him missing. They, in turn, called the Stevens Point college and the students responded.

Governor-Elect Reynolds Questions State Police Academy Attendance

Camp McCoy Director Says Few Men Are Sent Because of High Costs

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON—Are local law enforcement agencies boycotting the state-operated police training academy at Camp McCoy, Gov.-elect Reynolds wanted to know when he held a state traffic patrol budget hearing there during the week?

L. E. Beier, director of the patrol and chief of the academy which was designed to provide special schooling for both state and local enforcement personnel, speculated that cities and counties have sent comparatively few of their men to such classes because of the charges involved. The state collects a little more than $11 a day in room and board and instructional fees for each special student.

The new governor also appeared to be searching for other than the assumed causes for the high rate of turn-over in the officers of the state traffic patrol, which currently has 38 vacancies out of an authorized strength of 250. He asked Beier to give him a report on turn-over problems in typical county traffic police organizations, and in the city constabularies. His impression, said Reynolds, is that county police rarely quit.

The best money bargain in the state's program of social services for children is in the expanding foster home program. The average payment to foster parents last year for dependent and neglected or delinquent children placed by the state division of children and youth was $73 per month. The price may rise a little next year, officials report. A significant experiment in the making in the foster home program intends to place more juvenile delinquents in the carefully selected private homes, when children are ready for release from the state training schools, but do not have an adequate home environment to return to.

In a limited way in recent years the division of children and youth has put boys and girls in private institutions, for lack of suitable foster home opportunities. But the costs are disturbingly high, up to $550 a month in a few cases.

Alumni Fund Taking a cue from some of the successful drives of the private colleges and universities, the state college presidents are hopefully planning alumni fund solicitation campaigns to provide money to supplement their state tax appropriations. Preliminary efforts have been only moderately encouraging; many alumni reply that they are already paying high taxes for the support of these state institutions. But the presidents are asking for paid alumni directors in their new budgets, with the intention of putting such drives on an efficient and continuous basis.

expectancy of inmates of the two crowded colonies as they visited the Chippewa Falls hospital last week. Advances in medicine and pharmacy, they were told, have extended the life span of the inmates as well as of the general population. It is now perfectly possible for a youngster to be confined at such an institution for-of-factly.

State colleges are hopeful of getting money in their new budgets for some solid work in television instruction on their campuses. With a closed circuit television system, the presidents explained, a good lecturer could reach a number of classes simultaneously, and enrich the educational program with little additional cost.

Gov.-elect Reynolds listened attentively, but made no comment except to ask a question: "On the same reasoning, could we one day have one professor at Madison lecturing to college classrooms throughout the state?"

The president allowed it might be possible, but is not likely.

Interstate Section Among Finalists In Scenic Contest

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin's Interstate 90-94 section between Madison and Wisconsin Dells was among 20 finalists in a 1962 scenic award contest sponsored by a national publication, the State Highway Commission re-audited Friday.

The 50-mile stretch was opened to traffic Oct. 6, 1961.

Top prize went to Pennsylvania for a portion of Interstate 81 between Scranton and East Benton. The Wisconsin entrant was a section of the super road in Columbia County, known as the Smoky Hollow location. The scenic spot carries traffic over and under interstate lanes.

Republican Majority in Assembly Picks Leaders for 1963 Session

Haase of Marinette Chosen Speaker; Alfonsi of Minocqua to be Floorleader

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON — The Wisconsin Assembly Republican majority Friday picked a group of its ablest members to direct its affairs during the 1963 regular legislative session which promises to provide frequent and bitter political conflicts with Democratic Gov.

At a caucus of new and returning Republican assemblymen, 39-year-old Robert Haase of Marinette, a four-term member, was designated as speaker of the house, and seven-term Assemblyman Paul Alfonsi of Minocqua, 52, as GOP majority floorleader.

Assemblyman Curtis McKay of Ozaukee County, a second term, was named assistant floorleader.

ening of Wauwatosa in the chairmanship of the Assembly wing of the joint legislative finance committee, one of the key jobs in the new legislature in view of the diametrically opposed finance policies of the Republicans and the Democratic governor-elect. Assemblyman Everett Bidwell had the finance leadership in the last session, when he was named by Speaker David Blanchard of Rock County.

Wan Easily Blanchard did not run for the top office in the house this year, offering his ill health as an explanation. But it had seemed apparent that Haase would have been chosen in any event. He easily defeated Assemblyman William Hutnik, deputy speaker of the 1961 session, in the caucus test vote Friday.

The caucus selections are not official. They will be ratified in a formal organization vote on Jan. 9, when Haase will defeat the nominee of the Democrats, not yet known, by a vote of 53 to 47, which represents the division of Republican and Democratic strength in the house.

Kitto Speaks At Lawrence

Famed Classicist Advocates Reaching Minds of Other Times

"The purpose of reading is to make contact with minds perhaps a little better than our own," said Kitto before the Lawrence College student body Thursday.

To sample minds not of our own use "may do something toward modifying the provincialism to which we are all subject," he continued.

The provinciality attuned to one's own country is generally recognized, Kitto observed, but there is a provinciality of time that supposes the values of our epoch are the only reasonable ones.

Studying the product of minds outside our own epoch may cause us to criticize our own values and to discover they are not as universal and as obviously true as we had supposed, the University of Bristol professor remarked.

The major portion of the talk was devoted to a scholarly analysis of several historical tragedies — The Persae by Aeschylus, written in the 400's, and Shakespeare's Richard II and Henry IV. He illustrated how 20th century scholars' provincialism of epoch have caused grave misinterpretations to be given these particular plays.

Make Assumption "We must suspend some of our cherished contemporary presuppositions and look at the text on the assumption that the man who wrote the play was possibly as intelligent as ourselves," Kitto stated.

Nelson Defends State's Outdoor Resource Plan

Says Program Not Intended to Take Land From Tax Rolls

MADISON, AP—Gov. Gaylord Nelson said Friday the $50 million outdoor resource program he championed is not intended to take land from local tax rolls or put the state in competition with private recreation businesses.

“Both these fears are unfounded but the public must be informed of this fact,” the chief executive told a meeting of the State Recreation Committee.

Nelson said the act is not merely a land buying effort. “By increasing the recommended expenditure for the five-year period from $10 million to $50 million, the state is making a statement of its commitment to the protection and development of state resources,” he said.

Defenders Try Trial Fireworks

BY TV SCOUT

7:30-8:30 (Channel 2) — The Defenders has a few things this week it rarely has — an old-fashioned mystery, and E. G. Marshall pulling a courtroom stunt a la Perry Mason. Marshall is defending Carroll O'Connor, who does a fine job as a man accused of a brutal knife slaying of a girl. Using a contraption of doors, which he wheels into court, Marshall gets O'Connor off. But then another girl is killed, and he begins to have doubts, which are fanned by the DA (Frank Overton). So Marshall and Robert Reed set out to find the truth.

8:30-9:30 (Channel 11) — Wide World of Sports is all football this week, bringing you the championship game of the Canadian professional football league. This contest between the Hamilton Tigers and Winnipeg Blue Bombers will have been taped about three hours earlier.

6:30-7:30 (Channel 2) — As usual, The Jackie Gleason Show has taped more than enough material for its hour, and Jackie will pick which segments go on sometime before it gets on the air.

6:30-7:30 (Channel 4-5) — If you're not tired of seeing Burgess Meredith as an eccentric, you can watch him again tonight on Sam Benedict. The case involving him (he's a millionaire who dons a toga, denies the existence of his daughter and wants to burn his money) is pretty much a bore, but there is a secondary story which is quite good. In this one, Joby Baker is a jazz man who made the mistake of inviting a sophisticated girl (Yvonne Craig) to his apartment.

8-10 (Channel 4-5) — Although it was filmed before the Berlin wall was built, “Night People,” this week's Saturday Night at the Movies feature, still retains some of its untimeliness. This 1954 story of intrigue in the split city builds up increasing share of the load, but some good suspense.

9-10 (Channel 2) — This week's Gunsmoke is designed to let the show's secondary players have a bit more to do. The story revolves around Kitty (Amanda Blake) who is piqued at Matt Dillon (James Arness) because he's never around when there's a “so-so” school girls' department is pre-parable. This leaves her on an aping a large Advent wreath to hang in the cafeteria.

The Rev. Alfred Lison, Xavier spiritual director, will bless the Advent wreath Monday during the lunch period.

Because of fire regulations, the candles on the wreath cannot be lit for each of the four weeks of Advent. As the weeks of Advent progress, a special decoration which is added to the top of each candle to signify the flame. Ordinarily of the C.S.M.C.

Youth Camp Successful

The highly-successful youth camp program is recommended for $2.5 million. A similar amount is slated for return to fish and game budgets to replace funds previously borrowed for parks.

Nelson, the state's newly-elected U.S. senator, noted that the meeting would be his last with the committee.

“While we have had occasional differences, I want to tell you that the past four years have been the most gratifying, from the standpoint of real progress in natural resource work, of any I expect to see. We should all take a great deal of satisfaction from the acts which have made this state the national leader in the protection and development of our outdoor resources.”

Aid Recreation Industry

Nelson said that rather than offer competition to private recreational industry, the act would serve to protect the resource that attracts many of the visitors upon which such industry depends.

“Governments can't do the whole job in supplying recreation facilities and shouldn't try,” the governor said. “Private investment will have to assume an increasing share of the load, but government must help in providing the proper atmosphere and the necessary advice.”

Still-Smarting Jingo Looks Into TV Rating

Discovers Nielsen Report Depends on Only 1,200 Sets, Specially ‘Bugged’

BY JINGO

Some of the smart of being ignored by the Nielsen raters has been taken out of Jingo by an item discovered in “Variety.” Since it is quite likely some of you too felt a bit left out by the discovery that Nielsen publishes its ratings without bothering to test us in the Fox Valley, Jingo'll pass along the nub of the Variety report.

The fact of the matter is, Nielsen skips a lot of valleys — lowlands and highlands as well. In fact he misses a heck of a lot of country.

Variety reports that Nielsen makes its report that can spell the life and death of a television program from 1,200 reporting stations. That's right. In a country with several million television sets, only 1,200 of them are equipped with recording devices that tell Nielsen what's going.

The statisticians will argue that this 1,200 out of millions is a sample and that the results are carefully weighed to give a comprehensible report. Perhaps they are right, but it's hard to believe.

This far from Madison Avenue.

Madison Avenue has been blamed for controlling America's television fare and consequently a good share of what could loosely be called the nation's cultural growth — or retardation. The blame or, at least, responsibility, may very well be laid at the curb of this vaunted thoroughfare. But if there is a blame, then certainly Nielsen must carry a terribly heavy load.

Imagine having your tastes dictated to by a handful of tiny electronic devices scattered across the nation!

It's a wonderful world. Isn't it?

All of this talk about dictating in our free nation brings to mind the rather interesting fact that next April will be the 187th anniversary of the American Revolutionary War. This means we're just 13 years away from the bicentennial of the birth of our freedoms. The centennial of the Civil War can give us a small idea of what is surely to happen in 1976.

The Civil War observance is very likely to be small potatoes compared to the Revolutionary observance. They're getting it started now. Word has it that Sam Goldwyn Jr. is working up a film based on Howard Fast's novel “April Morning” about the first bloodshed in Lexington, Mass. Burt Lancaster is contemplated for the star.

If it starts 13 years early where will it end?

Dr. Ben Casey is set to make more history — electronic, not medical. The series' owner, Bing Crosby Enterprises, is getting ready to double the good doctor's office hours, the first time a TV

3 Vocalists, 9 Instrumentalists Featured in Messiah at Lawrence

Choral Society Performance to be Given Sunday at Memorial Chapel

Sunday's performance of Handel's "Messiah" in Lawrence Memorial Chapel will feature three vocal soloists and nine instrumentalists from the college's faculty and student ranks.

They and the 225-voice Lawrence Choral Society will be conducting of "H.M.S. Pinafore," as a "Buttercup" understudy. She earned bachelor and master of music education degrees at "Opera-Go-Round" Players, and Iowa's Drake University, and was leading roles with them in "Hansel and Gretel," "The Merry Widow," "Trouble in Tahiti," "Amahl," and others. At music fairs including Westbury, Camden County, Valley Forge, Toronto, and Niagara she sang roles in 10 musicals.

Mrs. Leitzke studied at Actors' Center, New York City, Kent State University, Kent, Ohio, and Louisiana State University, and was a student of Bettinna Bjorksten, Madison.

In an August "Autumn Showcase" benefit program in Neenah's Riverside Park, she held a prominent guest artist spot. Bass-baritone John Koopman is also a Lawrence Conservatory assistant professor of music. He was producer and director of the music education degrees at "Opera-Go-Round" Players, and Iowa's Drake University, and was leading roles with them in "Hansel and Gretel," "The Merry Widow," "Trouble in Tahiti," "Amahl," and others. At music fairs including Westbury, Camden County, Valley Forge, Toronto, and Niagara she sang roles in 10 musicals.

Koopman is a student of Mari-faurs including Westbury, Camden County, Valley Forge, Toronto, and Niagara she sang roles in 10 musicals.

Miss Taniguchi was a soloist-member of the Robert Shaw Chorale for four years. While teaching in New York she sang solo appearances at Potsdam, Rome, Syracuse, and Hamilton College, among them the Brahms "Requiem" and Haydn "Creation." In this area she was soprano soloist last spring with the choir of First Presbyterian Church, Neenah, in the "Creation." Miss Taniguchi also directs the Lawrence Women's Glee Club.

Mrs. Mary Ann Leitzke, Menasha, will be contralto soloist. She is a teaching specialist in voice at the conservatory, and is presently working toward a bachelor's degree in music.

Winter Sports Area Developed At Sunset Point

KIMBERLY — A skiing and sledding area is being developed at Sunset Point Park with the hope it will be ready for use this winter, according to Eugene Hietpas, street commissioner.

Village crews have cleared away trees and brush from a 300-foot slope and are in the process of grading the hill to develop an area suitable for skiing, tobogganing and sledding. Plans call for the hill to be divided, making it possible for each group to enjoy its own area unhindered.

The bottom and sides of the slope will be banked to prevent overshooting into wooded or ditched areas. The Kimberly Recreation Association donated $300 to help finance development of the facility. It is hoped the slope will be ready for the first major snowfall.

Future plans call for construction of a ski start on top of the hill. Also being considered are lights which would make the site suitable for night use.

Around Home...

The clothing drive being conducted by Lutheran churches netted one electric roaster this week. It wasn't planned that way, but St. John Lutheran Church, West DePere, ended up "donating" the roaster along with clothing.

The women of the church had obtained a new electric roaster. The roaster was delivered to the church Monday. The next day a truck for Lutheran World Relief picked up the used clothing at the church.

And—you guessed it—the box containing the roaster went right along with the boxes containing the clothing.

The roaster finally was found in Oshkosh, where it had been delivered for loading into a rail boxcar. It was returned safely.

Girl Faces New Theft Charge in Brown County

A 19-year-old Appleton girl who has been charged with theft from an Appleton department store and aiding a minor to obtain a Wisconsin identification card will face further charges from Brown County, she learned Friday in Outagamie County Court, Branch 2.

After her appearance Friday, she was ordered returned to her jail cell and ordered held without bond.
